

Where the Olympic Journey Begins

Futures Trial Information

Want to represent the USA on the USA National Team?
Think Brazil 2016!
Have 'eyes' on playing in college?
Want to improve your game to your highest level?

USA Field Hockey is the National Governing Body for Field Hockey in the USA and is a member of the United States Olympic Committee. As a National Governing Body we are charged with the responsibility to represent the USA in the Olympic Games. The Journey starts with Futures.

Trials for the Futures 2011 starts with asking your coach to run you through a standardized test and recommend you for the 2011 program. Test results and recommendations will be reviewed and invitations will be sent to the qualifying athletes. You must be at least 12 years old to participate.

To learn more about Futures Log into www.usafieldhockey.com/futures

Testing Date      Tuesday, August, 24, 2010
Testing Coach    Coach Donna Stephenson
Time                12pm – 1pm
Place / location   PRHS Stadium, Turf Field

To register: Log onto www.usafieldhockey.com and click into Futures Home Page. There you will see a link to the Futures Trial Registration page.

- Complete the registration information
- Pay the $25.00 registration fee
- Print the registration confirmation
- Bring the registration notification to your testing coach on your test day.

Athletes may NOT be tested without proof of registration. Make sure you let your coach know ahead of time you'll be showing up for the testing session and do not forget to bring your registration confirmation on your testing day.

GO USA

The USA Field Hockey Futures program offers aspiring field hockey players the opportunity to advance their technical and tactical skill sets by training under certified USA Field Hockey coaches during the spring months. Athletes attend a regional tournament and have the chance to advance to the National Futures Tournament. Events are well attended by college coaches who are looking for talent to build their future team rosters.